17. ABSTRACT (MAX. 250 WORDS)
A letter to parents requesting permission to visit the home is written in both Spanish and English. Blank spaces are provided for the parents' names, the child's name, and the teacher's signature. The time and day for the visit is to be checked by the parent and returned to the teacher. The parent permission slip for three bus trips to be taken between June 1 and July 31 is also written in Spanish and English with a space provided for the child's name and his parents' authorization. The home visit report leaves blank spaces for the pupil's name, sex, address, age, parents' names, together with the date, the name of the teacher and the name of his school. Space is provided for the teacher to fill in comments pertinent to a child's home, his family and his school behavior.
